DETECTIVES CONDUCTING DEATH INVESTIGATION

July 19, 2010—Detectives with the Martin County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigations Division are conducting a death investigation regarding a drowning that occurred on Saturday, July 17, 2010, at the Caribbean Shores Hotel & Cottages in Jensen Beach.

At approximately 2:20 a.m. Deputies responded to 2625 NE Indian River Drive in Jensen Beach regarding a 34-year-old male that had been found by his wife unconscious in the pool. Deputies performed CPR until the arrival of Martin County Fire Rescue. Marcelino Rosas was pronounced deceased at the scene. The Rosas family had been here in the area visiting friends for approximately one week.

There were no obvious signs of trauma to the body and at this time Detectives do not suspect foul play. The Office of the Medical Examiner will conduct an autopsy to determine exact cause of death.
