Detectives Recover Stolen Property/Two Arrests Made

June 16, 2010--Martin County Sheriff's Office detectives recovered a large amount of stolen property yesterday as the result of two search warrants executed at residences on S.E. Mayo Drive and S.E. Arnold Drive in southern Martin County. Televisions, rods, reels, lures, GPS devices, stereo speakers and other items were located at the homes and in various pawn shops in Palm Beach County. Detective Todd Schimmelfanick placed the value of these goods at approximately $10,000.00 thus far. Most were stolen from vessels in the County Line area.

Arrested on multiple counts of burglary and grand theft were Ronald Lee Rugg, DOB: 10/26/1990, of 18984 S.E. Arnold Drive, Tequesta and Ricky Charles Morales, DOB: 08/19/1991, of 18946 S.E. Mayo Drive also in Tequesta. Both are currently being held in the Martin County Jail on bonds totaling $15,000 each. Schimmelfanick anticipates recovering more property and effecting additional arrests as the investigation continues to develop.
