ROBERT L. CROWDER, SHERIFF

ARREST MADE
GRAND THEFT & FRAUDULENT USE OF CREDIT CARDS

July 27, 2011—Martin County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigations Division Detective Leo Ferreira has arrested Timothy J. McJilton (W/M, 10-20-84) for grand theft and fraudulent use of credit cards in connection with a theft reported at The Experts. The Experts is a retail custom home theater and automotive audio/video showroom.

Detective Ferreira began his investigation after it was reported to law enforcement that approximately $15,506.80 in equipment was missing from inventory at The Experts. McJilton was formerly employed at The Experts. A search of McJilton's residence led to the recovery of several thousand dollars in merchandise belonging to his former employer. The investigation also revealed that McJilton had used the company credit card on three separate occasions to purchase $1921.54 in personal electronics items (also discovered at his residence). McJilton declined to speak with Detective Ferreira and requested his attorney.

McJilton was booked at the Martin County Jail and released after posting bond in the amount of $5,000.
