Traffic Safety - Memorial Day Weekend

May 27, 2011 – Deputies with the Martin County Sheriff's Office Traffic Unit will be conducting special DUI enforcement saturation patrols this Memorial Day weekend, cracking down on drunk driving in an ongoing effort to improve traffic safety, save lives, and prevent injuries. Areas of attention will include local causeways and boat ramps. Deputies will be looking for impaired drivers; if you are driving under the influence you will be arrested.

"We want people to enjoy the Memorial Day weekend, but urge you to do it safely. If you are going to be drinking--don't drive, and if you see a motorist you suspect is impaired, contact 9-1-1." said Sergeant Richard Parks, DUI Supervisor for the Martin County Sheriff's Office Traffic Unit.
