MARTIN COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE NOW ON FACEBOOK

January 4, 2012—We've gone social! The Martin County Sheriff's Office has launched a new way for residents to access timely public safety information about their community. The Sheriff's Office is now on Facebook.

The Martin County Sheriff's Office Facebook page, found at www.facebook.com/martincountysheriffsoffice, will feature up-to-date news, crime prevention tips, and other items of interest regarding law enforcement services in Martin County. Residents are encouraged to use the page to stay informed and to get involved by offering feedback. Current Facebook users can "like" the page now to start getting updates.

"The use of Facebook will help to promote better communications and broaden the delivery of our message beyond traditional media outlets. Facebook provides an additional resource for the timely delivery of public safety information," said Martin County Sheriff Robert L. Crowder "We want the members of our community to be well informed so that they can help to be a partner in keeping Martin County safe."
